DEPARTMENT OF HISTORY

Title of the practice:

Social Awareness Programme

The Department of History is organising Social Awareness Programmes to benefit the students. This programme helps the students and faculty nowadays. They also help us students to get the experience of acquiring some knowledge.

In order to increase social awareness among the students in our college, the Department of History has organized some awareness programmes about prominent national and state leaders. Through these programmes, social awareness among the students and the ideals of the leaders are communicated to the students and it is arranged to increase their motivation.

AIMS and OBJECTIVES

- To make aware the students of social, cultural and issues
- To mould character as part of personality development
- To transform students into responsible citizens

PRACTICE:

The Department of History hosted and conducted awareness programmes for our students' subjects and general knowledge. This type of programme is beneficial for Personality development and improves self-confidence and positive attitude among the students.

GOAL:

Updation of Knowledge.
Interaction with experts
Practical experiences

CONTEXT:

It is common knowledge that many graduate students fail to get in-depth lack of knowledge during their studies. It is also observed that many of these students are wanting in their skill set, such as communication skills.

EVIDENCE OF SUCCESS:

Students are gaining the latest knowledge

Students got the confidence to participate in this type of programme
